The Cimes Challes Dispatch

DAILY-WEEKLY-SUNDAY.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1900

To Christmas Shoppers.

Please buy your presents early. Early in the day and early in December.
That will be your biggest gift of the holidays—to the workers behind the counters and on the delivery

For wealth and plenty in a land e justice reigns not is no argu-of a fourishing state, but of a eas rather to ruin or commotion.

States' Rights and Tariff Reform.

Trading on Inside Information.

During the Revolutionary War the government had great difficulty in rais payment as seen as the re should be able. between the original holders and purchasers of this paper.

To have made such a distinction, says Thomas Jefferson in relating the game which was to be mayed, and for which the minds of greedy members' were already tolored and prepared. When the frial of strength and indicated the form in which the bill would nex, were flying in all directions. As tive partners and asents were associate and employed in every State, town, county and neighborhood, and this paper Thousands of people sujey these exwas bought up as five shillings, and even | hillitions yearly; but under our present tion at par. By and by the curtificates were redesimed at their face value," and Mr. Jefferson says that "Immense sums turned at the close of the exhibition (a of money were thus 'filehed' from the comparatively insignificant proportion), ployed to designate this game of plun, ownership is always very brief, and for. The "game" was nothing short sooner or later the paintings get into of the lunest robbery and was a dis. the public galleries," he was voicing directors of a railroad company know ment regulations, she paid a duty of well in advance that the rate of dividend nearly $300,000. Sinco paying this duty

iers who play the infamous game

The Wall Street Game.

after the duty had been paid by the the home dealer purchases abroad by

The "loan exhibition" which has a permanent place in our iff. us low as two shillings, in the pound, has the duty he a force which is you before the helder knew that Congress standy at work to limit the number of all of which, except those which are sent here for temporary exhibition to be rehave paid the duty.

When Senstor Hoar said that "private educational authorities. Nearly all our made in this day and generation, art museums have been founded and are ild have forestalled it. Mercover, of art, and many thousands of dollars. Congressman caught in such a trick, have been paid by these donors in duties. large scale in the United States. The country. In order to be free of govern-

But "trading on inside informa- ner, in Boston. She has imported one is to be raised at the next meeting. The she has been most liberal in allowing secret is closely guarded, however, from the public to view the collection, and her passed around that the rate is NOT to She had set aside a certain fund for got the $300,000, and spent it for some Our people are too enlightened and our Congress too progressive to allow this be maintained for any length of time.

A Square Deal.

whole country, and it is a good sign.

ment is going to levy an inheritance tax on them, it ought first to provide them win a few inheritances.

Chancellor Day, of Syracuse, has in-Mr. But Masterson has been arrested and itsled to court without the massacre of a single sheriff. Thus does another dol reveal the foot of clay.

Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbin has given his five-year-old son a little electric automo-bies the size of a goat-oart. It must be marely big enough to kill pedestrians.

The President thunders against the standards and Miclers' who criticize he canal, but Poultney Rigelow has now reached the point where he decan't care. Dr. Day wants it known that he, for his part, is ready to greet any million-aire in the world with the glad hand, (ine consoling thought about the Roose-velt measures is that the newspapers don't have to pay space-rates for them. But it may help some to remember that you won't have to Christmas shop again

If the President could only dig that canni with Mr. Loeb's typewriter, there would not be one cloud upon the horizon.

Band-wagon, water-wagon, wind-wagon, whitz-wagon-how the old language expanding along vehicular lines. "My dear Bellamy" has no longer even the consolation of being a live news issue.

This is also the season of the near-

Nothing proceeds like a procession. And Santa Claus will get all the credit.

Everybody's talking shop these days,

Dr. Lyon's

Convenient for tourists.

PREPARED BY

J. H. Lyon. D.D.S.

Rhymes for To-Day

Any Husband to Any Wife.

When you would pur has, chesp or dear, A Present-The one I mean which each Yule-time You buy for me to mark the season— Sweet gimeracks which have neither rhyme

Claudine, I want no shaving-set, No neur-cigars or smoking lacket-if this you've bought already yet,

No bathrobe or a semblance of h-Indeed, there's nothing of this sort

I want none dear—at, little recked I Last year to got that fountain pen And necktie. No, dear—don't purchase and go bust

(Excuse that vulgarism, honey)—
If give you will, why give me just II, S. If

MERELY JOKING.

POINTS FROM PARAGRAPHERS.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL

People Seen in Public Places

Cleanses and beautifies the teeth and purifies the breath.

[The title is berrowed from Browning. In return we should be glad to lonn his heirs this poem any time.] C LAUDINE, once more the rolling Year Has brought the time you find so pleasant Walter Whiteley, of Crozot, Albe-county, is at Murphy's, being in fy to attend the State Horticultural y, of which he is a member. My.

MILK FOR POOR. One Quart Will Be Given to

Every Needy Person. Members of the "Way New York" com-pany, playing at Hijou Christmas week, are in the city now. The company, like many others, rests this week, the week before Christmas, as people generally are busy looking after the offairs of Christ-

The show is well known to Richmond theatre-geers, having played here for three seasons. As an appreciation of their regard for Richmond, Mr. Gus Hill, the owner of the show, has instructed his leadings manager, Mr. Harry Yost, to give to all the poor people here, as a Christmas gift, one quart of milk purchased from the Richmond Dairy. This milk will be served from the old Ripou Theatre Building at Eighth and Broad Streeta, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Any one holding a tleket furnished by Sperintendent George B. Davis will be given the milk. it. O. Davis, the vice-presidential causiwill build a Presbyterian Church to exist at the anxiety at the action of the country of the pavis Medd Presbyterian Church at Elkins, that was built by Mr. Davis for his condrowned off the coast of Africa.

O see of thery-seven, is the roungest of chief in the United States, and the cost dovernor in the country, though at must line he is the oldest Governor in the of service, having served Kentucky in capacity for seven years.

W. C. Furshee, an instructor in antiroy at Harrard, salled on Mondey at income of abspirition for Senth America to
of abspirition for Senth America to
of abspirition for Senth America to
on exhaustive study of the little known as Indian tring of the region of the way three years. Dr. Farshee has done it work in other perits of the world.

Senator William E. Chardier is an exgiven the milk.

Mr. Joseph Bryan has donated the use

GOODMAN, TRIED FOR ABDUCTION, NOW FREE

[Special to The Times Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA. December 18.—After being out nearly two hours, the Jury in the Corporation Court to-night returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of D. P. Goodman, charged with abducting Lillian Harrison, thirteen years old.

The prisoner was allowed to leave the court-room with his wife, although an indetiment for attempted criminal assault is still pending against him. Goodman is twenty-four years old and works as a mechanic at the ship-yard. He has a wife and baby.

Last summer he and the Harrison girl, who is well-grown for her age, disappeared, and four days after were discovered hiding in a milk wagon, near the northerly limits of the dity. Goodman claimed that the girl refused to so home, and that he was afraid to leave her because she said she would kill herself. They spent two nights in a stable, and one on the beach. Commonwealth's Attorney Robinson says be may not prosecute the indictment for attempted criminal assault. The Kind You Have Always Sought

ROYAL Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Healthful cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes, refined to absolute purity, is the active principle of every pound of Royal Baking Powder.

Hence it is that Royal Baking Powder renders the food remarkable both for its fine flavor and healthfulness.

No alum, no phosphate-which are the principal elements of the so-called cheap baking powders - and which are derived from bones, rock and sulphuric acid.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

MAY HAVE TO PAY TWICE FOR KILLING

Norfolk and Western for Second Miss Thea Goode Becomes Bride Time Defendant in Case Considered Settled.

May fine cage.

May fine company Must Operate

Its Cars on Show Course,

Special to The Times Dispates!

New PORT News, VA. December 18.

City Attorney Masse to-day issued summenouses for the Hampton Roads Traction Company, and ten days from now that company wil be in court to show course why it should not pay a fine of not less than £5 for each day it fails to operate ears over its line in the city. The company discontinued service last

All Like Judge Barksdale.

[Special to The Times-Dispaten.] BOYDTON, VA., December 18, V. R. Barkedule, of the Circuit

ASK COURT TO

of Mr. William M. Dabney.

Miss Florence Louise Marshall Bride of Mr. Charles Heinemann.

END PARTNERSHIP

END PARTNERSHIP

END PARTNERSHIP

Firm of Myer & Brulle Will Be Broken Up—Hog Weighing

1,000 Pounds.

[Special to the Thines-Dippatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., December

18—A suit has been begun in the Corporation Court here between Mr. Frederick Brulle and Mr. J. H. Myer, formerly composing the firm of Myer and Brulle, asking the court to dissolve the partnershop and order an account taken of the assets and liabilities of the firm. The firm of Myer and Brulle and Mr. J. H. Myer, formerly composing the firm of Myer and Brulle, asking the court to dissolve the partnershop and order an account taken of the assets and liabilities of the firm. The firm of Myer and Brulle recently sold the Germania Mills, after having been in business here for forty years.

Judge R. H. L. Chicheater, of Stafford country, has raised the largest hog in this section of the State. It is of the Berkshire breed, nearly three years old, and weighs 914 pounds, it will not be killed until the latter part of January, when it is expected that its weight will reach at least 1,000 pounds.

Richard Pratt, of Stafford county, sold here this week to Captain M. B. Rowe, fourteen turkeys raised from one turkey hen, which weighed dressed, 215 pounds, netting lim $14.00 in cash. A colored man, from the same county, sold sixteen turkeys, raised from one turkey hen, which weighed dressed, 215 pounds, netting lim $14.00 in cash. A colored man, from the same county, or February $\frac{1}{2}$ the first of the first of

The Bell Book & Stationery Co.

The Acme of Good Giving

Is to give something that will afford lasting pleasure and satisfaction; something that will be a source of never-ended delight; something that will awaken grateful memories for the giver! Such a Gift is a Fountain Pen.

In our Giff Store we have beautiful assortments of several makes.

We also have lovely Gift Books, Bridge, Whist and other game sets;
Shopping and Matines Bags, Leather Goods, Imported Bended Purses, Hand
Wrought Brush, Brass Desk Sets, etc., etc.

The Bell Book & Stationery Co., 914 EAST MAIN STREET.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL XMAS.